

2010 Honor Roll of Donors

These generous individuals made it possible for young people, regardless of income, to participate in the Cathedral Choir School's unique after-school experience that helps them achieve their potential as high school graduates—preparing them for college education and beyond—by combining academic tutoring and mentoring with a rich program of vocal music training and performance.

MEMBERS OF THE DONALD C. TAYLOR LEGACY SOCIETY

The Donald C. Taylor Legacy Society was created to honor and recognize alumni, parents and friends who share Taylor's passion for making a difference in the lives of young people, and who like him, have included The Cathedral Choir School of Delaware, Incorporated in their estate plans or made a gift to the Choir School's Endowment Fund.

The Legacy Society allows the Cathedral Choir School to properly thank donors, publicly or privately, which in turn encourages others to join this important group.

If you have already included the Cathedral Choir School in a bequest or other planned gift and are not listed below, we hope you will let us know.

The Cathedral Choir School's Office of Development can provide confidential assistance to aid members and friends in shaping an enduring legacy.

The following individuals have notified the Cathedral Choir School that it has been included in their estate plans:

Mrs. William Barnhill
 Mr. Thomas D. Henderer
 Ms. Melissa Huber-Twist
 The Rev. Jeanne Linderman and Mr. James Linderman
 The Rev. Doctor Margaret P. Patterson
